Every one will want to read "The Letters from a Son to His Self-Made Father." They are the answers to the most famous book of the year. "The Letters of a Self-Made Merchant to His Son." The father's letters were wise in their simple philosophy, keen in native wit and eloquent in humor. The son's letters in reply are all that the father's were, and more, for the son inherits all the father's vigor and with the training of a college education he deftly turns the tables on the old man in a way which should make the father's heart glad. The son's letters are easily the best humor of the decade, and the readers of the Boston Sunday Herald are assured the richest treat of American humor which the last decade has produced. The first letter will appear Sunday, May 31. Every subscriber of this paper should read them.

Men's Serge Suits!

Blue or Black! Which Will You Have, Sir?

You'll be pleased with either, for they are cool as a cucumber, primp and proper. No other fabric so fully combines all the virtues of Summer comfort for a neat and particular man. But you must have good serge. You have seen the kind that fades and wrinkles and pulls out of shape. Awful! We've had a good many years' experience with serges, and no one who buys a Serge Suit here runs a particle of risk. We handle none but tried and proven fabrics, and we guarantee every Suit we sell, whatever its price. Here are hints of the various grades: At $7.50, Blue Serge Suits that we guarantee for color and wear; at $10.00, Black and Blue Serge Suits guaranteed to stand very hard wear and keep their color and shape; at $15.00, Blue Serges, the best in the world, guaranteed in every way. Come here for your Serge Suits. You'll take no risk.
